October is Vocational Service month in Rotary. This avenue of service sometimes receives less attention than other service avenues, but celebrating the diversity of professions in our clubs, and the ethical practice of those professions, is at the heart of what we are all about in Rotary.

There are a number of ways to promote Vocational Service. Your club can recognize a club member for living by the Four-Way Test in his/her professional life. Even better, your club can honor a community leader who conducts his/her business ethically. Many clubs provide time at their regular meetings for members to present Vocational Talks, giving details of their professional work and how they apply the Four-Way Test daily.

The way your club engages in Vocational Service is your choice. However, I encourage your club not to take advantage of the opportunity to celebrate those who choose the ethical path in their business dealings.

You don’t want to miss Growing Your Business – Enriching Your Life, our district’s signature event in support of polio eradication. Sandler Training produces this event, providing incredible sales or leadership training at a fraction of what we would normally pay. Even better, a large portion of your registration fee goes directly to Rotary’s polio fund, and you and your club get the donation credit. You can find more details in the flyer in this newsletter. Click on http://www.training.sandler.com/content/show/74460 to register.

Please be sure to see the information about our District Rotary Foundation Banquet on page 3. You don’t want to miss the opportunity to hear our keynote speaker, 2016-17 Rotary International President John Germ, share his personal stories from the front lines of the global polio eradication effort. Remember, clubs who sign up early will get preferred seating at the banquet!

Welcome John Germ, TRF Banquet Speaker
Chair of the International Polio Plus Committee

John is Chairman of the Board of Campbell & Associates, Inc., Consulting Engineers. He joined the firm as an engineer in 1965 after four years in the United States Air Force. In Chattanooga, he has been active as the President of the Chamber of Commerce, Boy Scouts, Junior Achievement, Blue Cross Blue Shield of Tennessee and Campaign Chairman of the United Way. He also serves on the Board of Trustees Directors and Executive Committee of Orange Grove Center, University of Tennessee at Chattanooga School of Business Advisory Board, Executive Committee and Board of Directors Public Education Foundation, Past President and Treasurer of Chattanooga State Technical Community College Foundation, Chairman of Board Blood Assurance, Inc., a Regional Blood Center, and President of the Tennessee Jaycee Foundation. He has served on several community boards and is a past president of the Tennessee Jaycees. He was recognized as Tennessee Young Man of the Year for 1970 and is a recipient of the Boy Scouts Silver Beaver Award, Circle of Hope Award by the Arthritis Foundation, Volunteer Fund raiser of the Year Award and MS Dinner of Champions Award. He was recognized as the Tennessee Organization Volunteer of the Year in 2009. He was recognized by the White House as a Champion of Change in 2013.

New Invoice Process Affects ALL Clubs

What's changing?
Your dues invoice will take a new form beginning in January 2015. Rotary International will mail a simple, one-page invoice to your club. This dues invoice will be calculated using the membership information your club has submitted to RI no later than January 1, 2015.

This invoice will replace the Semiannual Report that has been sent to clubs for many years. Unlike in the past, no adjustments will be made after your invoice has been generated. This means that your club must ensure your membership records are current no later than January 1, 2015. Any changes made after this date will have no impact on your club’s invoice.

The same process will apply for the next dues invoice, which will be based on membership information your club has submitted no later than July 1, 2015. Please take steps now to ensure your membership records are kept current.

Because club invoices are changing, some important information in your club officer manuals is no longer correct. The necessary updates are summarized below.

NO LONGER CORRECT

Club Secretary’s Manual:
“Semiannual Report” section, including “Termination and Reinstatement” on pages 12-13

Club Treasurer’s Manual:
“Semiannual Report” section on page 6
The sample semiannual dues invoice on page 7
Termination and Reinstatement section on page 8

Club President’s Manual:
“Semiannual Report” section on page 40

"Termination and Reinstatement" section on pages 40-41

NEW INFORMATION

Club invoice
What was called the Semiannual Report (SAR) packet is now called the club invoice and will be only one page.

Your club invoice will be sent twice a year, no later than mid-July and mid-January.

The balance on your invoice will reflect your club’s membership list in RI’s database on 1 January and 1 July.

There is no longer a worksheet or any need to make calculations.

The invoice balance is due in full, and the amount cannot be changed.

The Rotary Club of Liberty enjoyed a day at the Beaver Pond Sporting Club. Assistant Governor Jaci Betts joined the group and “fired” a few rounds.

CALL FOR DISTRICT GOVERNOR CANDIDATES

Any club wishing to submit a candidate for District Governor for the 2017-2018 Rotary year must submit his or her name with complete qualifications NO LATER than OCTOBER 31, 2014.

The nominating committee for Governor shall not be limited in its selection to those names submitted by clubs in the district. The committee shall nominate the best qualified Rotarian who is available to serve as Governor. Any member who meets the criteria to apply for the DG position may complete an application and submit directly to the nominating committee for consideration. Interviews for governor will be November 12. The application is available through the district office (336-885-7690).

ROTARY FOUNDATION BANQUET

November 6, 2014
Register Early for Best Club Seating

Rotary District 7690 is honored to welcome Rotary International President Nominee John Germ as our featured speaker at the November Foundation Banquet. John Germ is also Vice Chair of the International Polio Plus Committee and he will share the latest news about the eradication of Polio. He has been selected to serve as the 2016-2017 Rotary International President. We invite our members and guests to join us on this special occasion held at the Koury Convention Center in Greensboro, NC.

Clubs should make every effort to register early for this special event. Club presidents will register their club as a group. Presidents will complete one registration form, include the full names of all members and guests who will attend the function, and include a check covering the $45 registration cost for each person attending. Full payment for each club must accompany the club registration form.

Name badges for each one listed on the registration form will be mailed to the Club presidents. Name badges will serve as the ticket to the event as well as identify a seat assignment for the evening event. The earlier you register your club, the better the seats you will be assigned!

The deadline for club registration is October 17, 2014.

Open World Program

Five Russian leaders participating in the Open World program spent September 13-21, 2013, in Greensboro examining Accountable Governance. This group was nominated by the Baikal-Eco Rotary Club Irkutsk, Russia. Summit Rotary Club hosted the delegation. Managed by the Open World Leadership Center, a support agency of the United States Congress, the Open World program is designed to enhance understanding and capabilities for cooperation between the United States and the countries of Eurasia by developing a network of leaders in the region who have gained significant, firsthand exposure to America’s democratic, accountable government and free-market system. The Open World program works to link Members of Congress to Eurasian leaders and is an instrument for Americans engaged in citizen diplomacy.

While in Greensboro the delegates explored the state of North Carolina and investigated social and economic drivers that directly influence state/local government policies and regulations.

The visiting delegates were Vladimir Alekseyev, Olga Artemyeva, Sergey Kiselev, Irina Matveyeva, and Artem Zabava. Yekaterina Vodopyan accompanied them as a facilitator.

During the stay, the Open World delegation visited some of the most prestigious historical, governmental, and educational institutions in the state of North Carolina. Visits included: Guilford Battlefield Park, North Carolina Capitol Building, North Carolina House of Representatives Chamber, and the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill School of Government.

Homestays allowed the Open World delegates to experience American family life. They also take part in several cultural and community activities, including a visit to Virginia International Raceway, a NASCAR event, as well as an afternoon of swimming and boating on Hyco Lake.

The Open World Leadership Center has awarded a grant to Rotary International to administer this and similar exchanges. The Open World Program is a special program available to Rotary clubs in the United States through a grant secured by Rotary International through which Rotary International is able to reimburse Rotary Clubs for many program hosting expenses.

The Open World Program was originally established as a Library of Congress–administered pilot project in 1999 to give emerging Russian leaders firsthand exposure to the American system of democracy through visits to local governments and communities in the United States. The congressionally sponsored program brings emerging leaders from Russia, Ukraine, and other Eurasian countries (Armenia, Georgia, Kazakhstan, Kosovo, Kyrgyzstan, Moldova, and Uzbekistan) to the United States in order to give them firsthand exposure to the American system of participatory democracy and free enterprise. The principles of accountability, transparency, and citizen involvement in government are among the concepts emphasized by the Open World Program. The program is administered by the Open World Leadership Center.

Rotary International serves as a national host organization, with Rotary clubs serving as local hosts for Open World delegations. The 2014 hosting year marks 15th anniversary of Rotary's participation in the Open World Program. Rotary clubs across the United States have hosted about 10 percent of all 23,000 OW participants throughout these years. RI is able to reimburse Rotary clubs for many of their hosting expenses through Open World grants.

For more information on the Open World Program please visit the following Web page on Rotary’s site: https://www.rotary.org/myrotary/en-exchange-ideas/club-connections/rotary-clubs or email Rotary staff at OpenWorld@rotary.org. You can also contact Mike Sigmon/Summit Rotary Club.

He served on the Rotary Foundation Finance Committee 2008-12, Vice Chair of TRF Stewardship Committee 2008-12, Investment Advisory Committee 2008-09 and Chair of the Investment Advisory Committee, 2010-12, He currently serves on the International Polio Plus Committee and as Vice Chair for 2012-14 and aide to Trustee Chair D.K. Lee. He has received Rotary International’s Service Above Self Award and The Rotary Foundation’s Citation for Meritorious Service and Distinguished Service Award. He and his wife, Judy, are Major Donors and members of the Arch Klumph Society of the Rotary Foundation. They have four children and five grandchildren.
At the September District Fall Seminar in Clemmons, 20 Rotarians from throughout the District shared their passion for Rotary during the Membership breakout. The energy in the room was palpable as each person introduced themselves and talked about “why” they joined Rotary, their special projects and their ah-ha moment when they went from a RINO (Rotarian In Name Only) to a true Rotarian. As I offered best practices and we shared ideas, I ended with the review of the Simon Sinek Ted Talk, “How Great Leaders Inspire Action.” Take a moment and find this 20 minute lecture for yourself. You’ll learn that when we are trying to attract new members we are usually hung up on talking about the “What”—that we are 1.2 million members in over 200 countries, the oldest and largest service organization in the world. And then we offer the “How”—that we give of our time, talent and treasure. But what should really be the focus of our recruiting conversation is the “Why” of Rotary. Just like in our classroom, you will probably bubble with the “feeling” words, the “believe” words, the words of “emotion”. Members say, “I’m passionate about a project, I love Rotary.” Use these feel good words and you won’t have to hard sell them about our great organization. You will touch the heart of your listener who will, instead, find it hard to resist. Help them be a “proud” (that’s a feeling word!) owner of Rotary!

Our Rotary Foundation Endowment Fund
Become a Bequest Society Member

One of the most important gifts a Rotarian can make is an estate gift to Our Rotary Foundation’s Endowment Fund. The Endowment Fund exists to ensure that Rotary will be a significant force for good in the world long after current Rotarians are gone. The Endowment Fund allows each of us to continue our impact in perpetuity, since our gifts are held in the Endowment and only earnings on our gifts are spent.

When asking a Rotarian to join the Bequest Society with an estate gift commitment of at least $10,000, the Rotarian might say that it is too much trouble to rework his/her will. There are two easy solutions for that potential obstacle.

The first possibility is a Letter of Intent that requires only the Rotarian’s name and signature, the date, and the amount of the gift. The Rotarian can fill in these four pieces of information in seconds and then provide a copy to his/her loved ones or attorney to add to estate documents. This is used for Rotarians who have simple estates that typically will be left to a single person.

The second possibility is a Will Codicil that requires only slightly more effort. This page serves as an addendum to an existing will that might be more complex, with multiple beneficiaries. All that is required is the same name, signature, date, gift amount, and county of residence, plus a notarization. Many Rotary clubs have notaries in their membership or members who employ notaries, so this should not be an undue burden. Once the Codicil is executed, a copy should be placed with the existing will.

These documents found on the landing page of the district website will make it easy for Rotarians to make a truly lasting impact on hundreds of lives. You can also obtain these documents from PDG Bob Newton, our District Endowment Chair.

Other ways to fund the bequest are through life insurance, charitable remainder trust, retirement plan (IRA/401(k) or donor advised fund.

I hope you will consider joining the Bequest Society. You will be helping to secure the future of Rotary’s outstanding educational and humanitarian programs. For more information, please reach out to our Endowment Chair, PDG Bob Newton, at Robert.L.Newton@gmail.com.

A World of Opportunity for Your Club’s Public Image Program!

We have many opportunities to raise the visibility of Rotary in our communities and to publicize not only our clubs’ activities but also Rotary throughout the world.

An example of an opportunity to send out a press release, post information and pictures on your website or Facebook, and tweet the good news is World Polio Day on October 24th. One club is doing a “Purple Pinkie Day” in partnership with area high schools and Interact clubs. A Rotarian who is a polio survivor can write a letter to the editor or op-ed piece. With the instances of polio confined to only three countries now, World Polio Day is a natural for Rotary PR!

Take a good look at the RI and district calendars and choose your opportunity to spread the good news about Rotary. Remember, pictures add interest!!

Almost two dozen District 7690 Rotarians, including District Governor Patrick Eakes, took advantage of breakout sessions on Social Media held during the recent District Training Workshops to learn more about “the power of getting their message out through social media.” Lane Jones from Alamance (Burlington) and Chris Estes from Greensboro Airport were the technical gurus. Lane and Chris introduced everyone to Facebook and Twitter. We now have several additional Rotarians in the Twitter-verse! Thanks to Lane and Chris for their time and expertise and the attending Rotarians for their interest in using the new tools to “Light Up Rotary!”

BREAKING NEWS!!

Chris Estes sent out this email on September 19 about the Facebook post above.

Rotary International re-tweeted our post yesterday. Their 300,000 followers saw our picture and message and "rotary7690" is now linked with their posts in the database. We got incredible exposure from this one image and message. I had 15 notifications of favorites or retweets because RI helped us out. This is a perfect example of how social media can expand our influence and resources beyond our physical borders.
